room, Fritz executes a series of spasmodic aerial flights and drops which would do credit to a circus dog. This performance would make the act of the dog that jumps into the wicker tube and upsets it look like a mule on the track with Crescendo. Fritz has kept up this program for a long time, and seems vigorous enough to continue it for many more moons. There is no political significance in this story.

ASTOUNDING DISCOVERY.

From Cooperville, Mich., comes word of a wonderful discovery of a pleasant tasting liquid that when used before retiring by any one troubled with a bad cough always ensures a good night's rest. "It will soon cure the cough, too," writes Mrs. S. Himelburger, "for three generations of our family have used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and never found its equal for coughs and colds." It's an unrivaled life saver when used for desperate lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00 at all druggists. Trial bottles free.

As He Put It.

"I have been upon a little exhortation," once said the first Lord Baltimore, who constantly misused one word for another, "to see a ship landed, and there is not a finer vessel upon God's yearth. You have no idiom how well it sailed."
